1. McNair Symposium & 11th Annual Open House

McNair 11th Annual Open House & Symposium: October 27th, 4:00 to 6:00 PM in Dreiser Hall #203

The McNair Open House & Symposium on October 27th is an ATTENDANCE REQUIRED EVENT! All scholars must report to Dreiser Hall promptly by 4:00 PM and remain at the event until 6:00 PM. If you need a class release letter, please contact the McNair Office. Please bring at least two prospective McNair Scholar applicants to this event. This is a recruitment event as well as a showcase for summer research projects. Dress is business casual – no jeans or shorts, please.

Seven former McNair Scholars will be present to discuss how McNair helped them prepare for the graduate school experience. REFRESHMENTS will be served.

2. Summer Research "Final" Stipend #5 Information

For summer research scholars only: To receive the research stipend of $500 (CHECKS WILL BE DISPERSED on THURSDAY, OCTOBER 28th) you must present your poster at the McNair 11th Annual Open House & Symposium on October 27th.

*Note to Summer 2010 Research Participants: Logan, Cheyenne, Katrina, Michael, Garrett, Asia, DeMarcus, Jennifer, and Kevin from Dr. Pearcey: your research posters are outstanding. Very nicely put together. We look forward to your presentations! Also, you may want to remind your faculty mentor to attend the Open House on October 27th

3. November Individual Meeting with Dr. Pearcey

Please schedule your "November" individual meeting w/ Dr. Pearcey by Friday, October 29th. The individual meeting will need to occur before Thanksgiving break. ATTENTION SENIORS: Please come prepared to continue the discussion on grad school applications.

4. Graduate School Funding Sources

<<http://www.cos.com/>>.

Liz Metzger explained how to use this search engine to find funding sources. You will want to register for free at the above link. We will be discussing it in our next individual meeting. It will take you just two minutes to register.

5. Notes from Taushia

If you have any recent accomplishments in academics (i.e. securing a scholarship, internship, etc.) please let me know by November 5th so they can be included in the fall newsletter. Thank you! <tbrooks10@indstate.edu>.
