

OUR RESEARCH/OUR SELVES!

CELEBRATING INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY and A CELEBRATION OF WOMEN'S STUDIES SCHOLARSHIP COLLOQUIUM

TUESDAY MARCH 1 AND WEDNESDAY MARCH 2, 2011 - LIBRARY EVENTS AREA

All sessions free and open to the public. Light refreshments throughout the day.
Come to one session or come to all!

Co-Sponsors: Women's Studies, Interdisciplinary Programs, Economics Department, Social Work Department, English Department; Joseph S. Schick Foundation, ISU Library

Tuesday, March 1, 3:30 Keynote Address

Space and Place: The Landscape of Domestic Violence
Dr. Elaine Lawless, co-author of Troubling Violence : A Performance Project,
Professor, Department of English, University of Missouri

A reception for the entire colloquium will take place at 4:30, following the keynote

Presentations by ISU Faculty and Students

Tuesday, March 1, 2011

- 10-10:45: Walking the Fine Line: Challenges Women Still Face in Organizational Life with Barbara Eversole, Assistant Professor, Human Resource Development & Performance Technologies
- 11-12:15: Gender Diversity in Economics at Indiana State University with Katrina Davis, ISU Economics instructor and graduate student in the CIMT Ph.D. program
-and-
FIT for the Future with Bev Bitzegaio, COT Student Career Support and Outreach Dir and members of Females in Technology
- 1:30-2:30: Women in Leadership, the Binding Thread with Dorothy Carole Yaw, Associate Professor, Human Resource Development & Performance Technologies and HRD 675 Leadership students: Lijun Cui, Natalie Farmer, Siham Lekchiri, Rui Long, Ashlee Lunsford, Tracy McDaniel, Camille Wallace, and Rachel Williams

Wednesday, March 2, 2011

- 9-9:50: Gender, Sexuality, and Feminism: Psychology Research in Progress with Veanne Anderson, Associate Professor, Psychology and graduate students: Michael Ann Glotfelter, Gina Beguhn-Madeska, and Crystal Mahoy
- 10-11: Radical Spiritual Motherhood: Autobiography and Empowerment in Nineteenth-Century African American Women - a book reading/signing with Rosetta Haynes, Associate Professor, English
- 11-12: Digital Primary Resources for Women's Studies Students, Scholars and Potential Contributors with Marsha Miller, Librarian, Cunningham Memorial Library
- 12-1: Gender and Environmental Giving with Debra Israel, Associate Professor, Economics
- 1-1:45: Seal Stories: A Feminist Look at Selkie Narratives from the Far North with Nan McEntire, Associate Professor, English